

THE NEWS.

We publish voluminous despatches this evening, of interest in relation to the gigantic struggle now going on, and although the great result is yet undecided, there is ample room for encouragement and hope in the semi-official bulletins that reach us from Washington. Butler gives us a brief despatch, full of good cheer from the south of Richmond, and promises to take good care of Ruregard, which he is no doubt amply able to do.

The death of Maj. General Sedgwick is a sad loss to our army. He was a soldier of ripe experience, and one of the best fighting men in the service of the Union.

General Wadsworth, whose death was mentioned yesterday, was one of the most prominent men in New York, and was the unsuccessful candidate for Governor against Seymour in 1862. It is a rich offering that the American people are now laying upon the altar of their country.

STATE NEWS.

A young German girl, of good character and prepossessing appearance, about 16 years of age, living in the family of Mr. S. C. Kahl, of Manitowish, was brutally murdered, in broad day light, on the 1st inst. Mrs. K. had left the house only about 20 minutes before, there being no one around the premises, that she knew of, only the girl in question. The fatal wound was inflicted with a sharp pointed instrument, which passed directly through the heart of the girl. No reason can be assigned for the fearful crime, save that the murderer supposed there was money in the house.—The La Crosse Republican says: Several parties have already started for Idaho by the overland route. Mr. Joshua Ridgely and Deacon Sylvester Smith left a couple of days ago. Messrs. Riley Farnham, W. B. and H. G. Hanson, Manitowish and Captain Anderson, and several others will probably leave on Monday.

Messrs. A. J. Walker, W. W. Ustick, John Croisler and Peter Quall and others will be off by the middle of the week.

The Plover Times states that not less than 20,000,000 feet of lumber has safely passed over Grand Rapids from the Upper Wisconsin, during the past four weeks. This body of floating wealth may be safely estimated as worth $500,000. On account of low water quite a number of rafts are tied up. With more rain there will be more lumber floated to market. The heavy rain of last Thursday night has probably raised the river to a running stage. Also that on Tuesday last Mr. John W. Bachel, or Amaziah Hayden, Leonard Hayden, and their families, and Enoch Hayden—in all 18 persons—left this village for California, taking the overland route. We learn that McIndoe's new mill, at Wausau, when completed, will be capable of cutting 100,000 feet per day.

The Adams County Press records a fatal accident arising from the careless handling of fire-arms, occurred in the village of Fordham last Saturday. A young man by the name of Welch, who has been stopping in the village for a few weeks, went to the house of Mr. William Robinson carrying with him a loaded gun. The careless manner in which he handled the weapon induced Mrs. Robinson to caution him against his carelessness; but she had not ceased speaking before the young man, lowered the muzzle of the gun, at the same time drawing it across the lounge, in doing which the hammer caught, discharging the gun, the contents of which entered the forehead of the daughter of Mrs. Robinson, killing her instantly. The girl killed was about eleven years ago, and an only daughter.—According to the Appleton Motor an unusual quantity of wheat has been sown in Outagamie Co., this spring.

The majority for Hon. J. T. Mills for Circuit Judge is 1835 on the home vote. A scuffling of the first water by the name of Dwight Pinney stole a valuable span of horses and a wagon loaded with grain from Mr. E. H. Stanton of the firm of Carpenter & Stanton of Beloit, on the 28th ult. The rascal sold the grain at Rockford and put off with his booty. A reward of $75 is offered for the recovery of the property and detection of the thief.—The Episcopalians are to erect a church in Appleton the coming summer.—Otto Tank, one of the heaviest property owners in the northwest, died at Fort Howard a few days since.

ONE "SHEAFEN SPEAR," of Braintree, Vermont, advertises in the Montpelier Watchman that he wishes to secure a place to supply a pulpit, as a practical preacher of the Gospel, and his wife would like a chance "to do housework, or work at the tailor's and dress-making business."

At the burning of the Palace Garden in Cincinnati a few days since, quite a collection of curiosities was destroyed. A sea lion was burned up, also a fine live eagle, a cage of live animals and birds, a trick pony, and a collection of wax figures.

At a meeting of the publishers of the leading newspapers of the Western States, recently held in Cincinnati, it was recommended among other reformatory and economical measures, to employ female help in the printing business as far as practicable.

PRENTICE THINKS that if things go on in the South as they are now going on, the rebels will soon get to be as unskilled as so many ladies in a ball-room.

PENNSYLVANIA has bought a $20,000 residence for her Governor in Harrisburg.

THE CINCINNATI Gazette says that fifteen hundred Germans attended the Fremont meeting at Turner Hall Wednesday night. Speeches were made by Mr. Prentiss, of St. Louis, and Capt. Stengel, of Cincinnati. The latter said that it was the desire of the Radicals to elect Fremont, but they would not go for a peace Democrat or McClellan in any event. If it became evident that the contest lay between the Baltimore nominees and the Copperhead nominees, they would support the Union candidate, even though it be Lincoln.

INSCRIPTION FOR A STATUE OF HENRY CLAY.—A New Orleans paper says that the colossal statue of Henry Clay in that city, by direction of Mayor Hoyt, is to have inscribed on its base the following extract from one of the deceased statesman's speeches:

"If I could be instrumental in eradicating this deepest stain, Slavery, from the character of our country, I would not exchange the proud satisfaction which I should enjoy for the honor of all the triumphs ever decreed to the most successful conqueror."

THE BILL to guarantee a Republican Government to the seceded States, and providing for their return into the Union, passed the House on Thursday. Instead of the requirement that one-tenth of the voters shall vote for the re-establishment of the State Government, this bill requires that it shall be a majority.

THE LOYAL women of Washington are carrying out their pledge not to use imported fabrics. Some of the wealthiest ladies in Washington have put on domestic calico.

TWO HUNDRED and twenty-four persons united with the churches of Springfield, Mass., last Sunday.

GENERAL SIGEL and THE PRESS CORRESPONDENTS.—General Sigel has issued a statement, rather against correspondents sending anything to the press from his department that can be of any use to the army, and subjecting any officer or private to court martial who shall communicate any contraband news. Civilians within the limits of the department who furnish such unlawful information, as well as those who publish it, will be regarded as enemies to the Government, and will be arrested by the military authorities, and tried by a military commission. Papers which shall publish anything forbidden by the order shall be excluded from the department.

PAUSE.—Mr. Daniel W. Voorhees in one of his late speeches said: "Pause for a moment ye sweating tax-payers, and comprehend if you can, the weight of this load. I pause with you." Daniel's appeal is at least disinterested, for as he earned rather an unpleasant reputation for not paying his taxes he of course don't know much about the "weight of the load." When he "pauses" he only "pauses" to look at the rest pay.—Cincinnati Gazette.

IN THE warrant for a town meeting in a neighboring town, a few weeks since, one of the articles was to see if the town would authorize the erection of a dog-stall. One old Copperhead patriarch, on the day of the meeting was heard to ask his friend what kind of a flag it was proposed to display upon the stall. "The stars and stripes, of course," replied the friend. "I thought so," said the old shell-bag, "I knew it was some d—d black Republican Project!"—Portland Advertiser.

THE EDITOR of the Richmond Dispatch, is said to be Oliver P. Baldwin, formerly a resident of Cleveland. Twenty-five years ago he was a law student in that city, but subsequently studied divinity and went to Virginia, where he became editor of a literary weekly journal. Baldwin was distinguished as a fine scholar and a handsome man, but very forcible speaker. He is now the bitterest rebel in rebellion.

ENLIST! ENLIST! FOR ONE HUNDRED DAYS!

The undersigned having been appointed by the Governor of Wisconsin to recruit and enlist volunteers for the one hundred day United States service, may be found at the

PROVOST MARSHAL'S OFFICE

In this city, where he will be prepared to receive the names of all patriotic citizens who wish to enter this patriotic branch of the service.

CHAS. G. WILLIAMS, Recruiting Officer. Janesville, May 11, 1864.

FOR SALE AT A BARGAIN.—One acre of land, with house and barn, pleasantly situated with five minutes walk of the Postoffice. Part of the purchase money can be retained on the property. Apply to CHAS. CAMPBELL, at the Post Office north of Wisconsin's Woolen Factory, or to H. A. PATTERSON, Esq.

LOCAL MATTERS.

TO OUR DAILY SUBSCRIBERS.—We have now a collector at work settling up with our Daily subscriber, to the first of May, and shall hereafter continue this practice quarterly. "Short settlements make long friends," and it is infinitely better for our patrons as well as ourselves that these small bills should be promptly met when they are presented.

The carriers of this paper are not authorized, in a single instance to receive pay for the Gazette.

THE LADIES of the Soldiers Aid Society, are requested to meet to-morrow at their rooms, at the usual hour.

ARRIVAL OF THE THIRD CAVALRY.—We learn that the 3d cavalry, which was expected to arrive here this afternoon, will not leave Chicago till to-morrow morning.

COMPANY A, Janesville recruits, rally to-morrow morning at the Provost Marshal's office at 9 o'clock for drill.

S. T. LOCKWOOD, Recruiting Officer.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—"Ada" can do better if she tries. If she will familiarize her mind with the writings of some of the best poets it will give her a better conception of the great essential which we call rhythm than she now entertains.

WHAT MILTON IS DOING.—The company at Milton, raised by Prof. N. C. Twining, report fifty recruits this morning. This is the result of two days work of enlisting. Undoubtedly the company will be filled by Friday.

At a meeting held by the members of the Military Company recruited in this city for the one hundred days' service, it was determined to hold a meeting in the Court Room to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock, May 12th, for the purpose of electing a Captain, and to transact other business of importance. Let there be a full turnout by the company, as it is desirable that every member should be present.

By ORDER.

GRAND CONCERT OF THE MUSICAL UNION.—In the midst of their rejoicings, we trust that our people will not forget to attend the concert this evening at Lappin's Hall. The song of the Bell, or the Casting of the Bell, is one of the finest things ever written. Nothing of the kind has ever been given in this city. In addition to the Contraltos the miscellaneous part of the program, which will be very attractive. P. M. Watson, the well known basso of the "Continents," will appear several times, which will add much to the entertainment. A pamphlet of eight pages, containing the entire poem of the Song of the Bell, by Schiller, will be furnished, for which the small sum of five cents will be charged.

FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE FIRE DEPARTMENT.—Arrangements have been perfect for a party to be given on the 27th inst, at Hyatt House Hall, the proceeds of which will be for the benefit of the various fire companies of our city. Sol. Hutson, who knows so well how to manage such matters, is to have the supervision of the tables, which insures a success in that direction; and a competent committee of arrangements will see to it that the other features of the party are carried out to perfection. The floor of the dancing hall has been waxed, and the inconvenience of dust which is ordinarily so annoying will be entirely obviated. Webb and Loudon's fine band will furnish the music for the occasion. Everything points to a good time.

DISEASES OF THE EYE AND EAR.—Dr. Gardner, Oculist and Aurist, and one of the ablest operators in this country will again visit Janesville for three days on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May 12th, 13th, and 14th. Office at the Hyatt House.

The testimonials which Dr. Gardner presents to the public could never have been obtained except by the display of great skill and learning in his profession. One thing especially commendable in the doctor's practice is that he will not attempt an incurable disease for the sake of a fee, but frankly tells the patient whether he can be cured or not. We cheerfully recommend Dr. Gardner to the attention of all our friends who may be suffering from diseases of the eye or ear.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Special Dispatch to the Gazette.

WASHINGTON, May 10.—The preparations for the wounded in the recent battles are now perfect. The weather is cool, and there is rain, both of which are favorable for Grant.

Troops are constantly arriving here from the North.

WASHINGTON, May 10, 1:30 P. M.—A messenger who arrived last night from Spottsylvania, says the fight was going on between Grant and Lee when he left.

Lee was showing signs of weakness and falling back.

FROM GEN BUTLER.

Special Dispatch to the Gazette.

WASHINGTON, May 10, 1:30 P. M.—To Major General Dix: The following dispatch has this moment been received from Gen. Butler. It tells the story.

(Signed) E. M. STANTON.

HEADQUARTERS NEAR BERMADE LANDING, May 9.—Our operations may be summed up in a few words. With 1,700 cavalry, we have advanced up the peninsula, forced the Chickahominy and safely brought them to our present position. These were colored cavalry and are now holding the position as our advance towards Richmond. Gen. Kintz with three thousand cavalry from Suffolk, on the same day with our movements up James River, forced the Blackwater and burned the railroad bridge at Stony Creek below Petersburg cutting in two Beauregard's forces at that point. We have landed here, entrenched ourselves, destroyed many miles of Railroad, got a position which, with proper supplies we can hold against all of Lee's army.

I have ordered up the supplies.

Beauregard with a large portion of his command was left south of the existing of the Railroad by Gen. Kintz. That portion which reached Petersburg under Hill I have whipped to-day, killing and wounding many and taking many prisoners after a severe and contested fight. Lieutenant General Grant will not be troubled with any further reinforcements to Lee from Beauregard's forces.

Signed, B. F. BUTLER, Maj. Gen. Com'g.

ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.

(Special dispatch to the Gazette)

WASHINGTON, May 10.—It is believed from reports which reached here to-night that there was no general engagement yesterday. Heavy firing was heard this morning in the direction of Spottsylvania Court House. The contest must have been renewed. Our forces do not occupy the latter place, but are within several miles of it.

WASHINGTON, May 10.—On Monday Burnside began an attack on the left with great fury and success. He had a fight the day before in which, to use his own words "we whipped old Longstreet's army." There could not be a more cheerful condition. All were sanguine of success, and count the days when they shall enter the rebel Capital in triumph. All battles thus far have been serious attacks and repulses. Muskets almost entirely used.

M.

FROM GENERAL BUTLER.

NEW YORK, May 11th.—The Herald says it is probable that Butler had another severe battle yesterday. A battle between Union gunboats and rebel iron clads commenced yesterday. There are five Union and three rebel iron clads that are expected to take part.

ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.

WASHINGTON, May 10.—Lee has lately issued an order for supplies, in which he said, communications from Richmond were cut off, and that it was impossible to furnish the men with rations. Hill's corps had no rations issued for three days. Lee enjoins upon his men the necessity of capturing supplies from the Yankees. Up to this moment they have not captured a single wagon. The roads are in excellent condition, but very dusty. All battles thus far have been a series of attacks and repulses; muskets being entirely used. The swampy nature of the ground rendered artillery impracticable. Lee very absurdly claims victory when he withdrew from our front and retired to Richmond. Gen. Torbell's division of cavalry whipped the rebel cavalry near this place and drove them from Spottsylvania Court House, but being reinforced with Quanty they drove our cavalry a short distance. The Maryland brigade, 4th division, 6th corps, coming up to their support, the fight was exceedingly fierce. Gen. Sedgwick was shot through the head on Monday morning while superintending the working some heavy guns on an angle. There was no skirmishing at that time but an occasional sharp shooter sent a bullet in that direction.

FROM NORTH CAROLINA.

NEWBERN, May 7.—Herald's Correspondent.—On Thursday afternoon of the 5th, the rebel ram Obermaster, accompanied by its satellite Cotton Plant and army gunboat Bombshell, captured by them at Plymouth, appeared at the mouth of the Roanoke river. The gunboats Miami, Whitehead, Ceres, and Commodore Paul were lying close to the river in the sound. On seeing the ram enter the sound they made off as if fearful of an encounter, but only anxious to draw the ram into the sound, and its followers pursued about 12 miles when the gunboats Sassacus, Wyoming and Mattabesset, double enders, appeared. Our gunboats, 7 in number, immediately opened fire and a terrific engagement ensued lasting from 5 to 8 P. M. During the early part of the battle the Cotton Plant succeeded in making its escape and the ram firing rapidly, slowly and steadily retreated up the sound. The gunboat Bombshell was soon retaken with all on board, 34 in number. The Sassacus having an iron prow steamed at full speed and ran into the ram about the centre, but apparently without inflicting any injury. The Sassacus, however, was compelled to retire, having the forward part knocked off, and a 100 pound Parrott shot fired by the ram through her boiler.

Night had now come on, and the movements of the ram could not be discerned. Closely pursued by gunboats and under cover of the darkness the ram succeeded in entering Roanoke river, where the gunboats could not venture to follow.

The ram carried at least four 100-pounders. She has not been seen since, but active measures will be taken to capture or destroy her.

Rebel reports from Kingston report the rebel ram in the Neuse high aground. She draws 7½ feet of water, and the river is only 4½ feet in depth. The rebels for the present have abandoned it and taken the engine out.

FROM THE SOUTH.

New York, May 11.—Dalton correspondent of the Atlanta Register avers there has been a great concentration of Union forces at Chattanooga than on the Potomac, and the Raleigh Progress confirms the statement, adding Gen. Grant's movement on to Richmond but a faint, while on to Atlanta is a reality.

FROM CHARLESTON.

New York, May 11.—Tribune's correspondent from Charleston says there has been a thorough destruction of Railroad from Wenta river down to Bull's Gap. Months can hardly suffice for re-building this line of road and it can be used by the rebels for the transportation of troops and supplies.

(Advertisement.) Things to be Remembered.

First, That it is a positive business necessity to have your buildings, merchandise and other personal property insured against fire.

Second, That E. L. Dimock now has the agency of nearly all the Sound Old Eastern Insurance Companies that are represented in the west, and that the capital represented by these companies is sufficient to do all the insurance for Janesville and Rock County.

Third, That these companies are noted for adjusting losses fairly and paying them promptly.

Fourth, That E. L. Dimock has left a few more of those beautiful calendars for 1864, blotting pads and excise laws for distribution to customers.

It is at all times important to insure with Old Companies. Now it is especially so, we know not what a day may bring forth in the financial world. Keep in the old paths.

NOTHING FROM SHERMAN.

ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.

WASHINGTON, May 11.—1 P. M. Nothing has been received here of any reverse to Grant's army. The rumor prevailed in the army yesterday that Lee was about crossing North Anna River.

New York, May 11.—Rebel prisoners captured on Monday report Longstreet's death.

WASHINGTON, May 11.—Gen. Dix: Dispatches were received from the Army of the Potomac at 5 P. M. yesterday. Both armies held their positions at Spottsylvania without material change. Enemy have been driven to their breastworks.

The 6th corps, under Gen. Wright had carried the first line of the enemies rifle pits. Heavy skirmishing during the day.

Nothing heard from Sherman or Butler since noon yesterday.

Signed, E. M. STANTON.

WASHINGTON, May 11.—All was quiet along the lines until late Monday evening, when it was thought the rebels were falling back or that Lee had already gone to Richmond to meet Smith, who was reported close to there, and therefore a move was determined on, and at 5 P. M. the entire line moved forward. The right crossed a branch of the river Po, and drove a light battery off, posted to defend a small bridge.

Warren's front and Hancock's left had a lively engagement with the rebels, who threw shot and shell from a battery in the woods. The enemy were finally driven back about three-quarters of a mile, and at dark the firing ceased. A rebel cavalry brigade was reported having been seen on the north side of the river Rapidan on Monday near Fredericksburg. The World's special says Lee's entire army was, Monday, on the south bank of Gladly river, between that and the river Po. His right stretched nearly to the Fredericksburg and Richmond Railroad, which he seemed desirous of reaching to obtain supplies and secure his safety. We have taken more prisoners in Lee's retreat than during Thursday and Friday's battles. All information in Grant's possession is most favorable and shows clearly Lee's retreat beyond Spottsylvania.

Our wounded are reported at 15,000, most of whom are at Fredericksburg, and so thick that they are lying in the streets and on the pavements.

A cavalry patrol ordered out could not do duty as it was difficult to pass between the rows of wounded without trampling on them.

It is said that there are between 2,000 and 3,000 rebel wounded there also, who were left upon the field.

The special to the Commercial says, it is said that the rebels have a large entrenched depot of supplies in the South Anna line of defenses, toward which point Lee was directing his retreat.

Grant, in following him, will be leaving his base of supplies at some distance, but his men have rations for several days with them.

The Final Struggle.

Some idea may be formed of the value which the rebels place upon their position in Virginia, by reading the brief article which we copy below from the Richmond Examiner of as late a date as April 29th. They look upon the prodigious struggle now going on, as the decisive contest between the respective combatants. The Examiner says:

"No further success in the West—not even another Vicksburg can save the Government of the United States from the impending doom of financial and political collapse and bankruptcy; for no wound will there reach the heart, or destroy the power of prostrating an endless combat. But the overthrow of Virginia would give the Abolition party a new lease of life, and enable it to make immediate efforts in finance and war even greater than those of 1862; while the blow would touch the vitals of the South, and paralyze its limbs with the weakness and tremor of dissolution. The issue has been made up for trial here. We wish that the lists had been laid elsewhere. But since it has come, let all the South look fairly at it. If we hold our own in Virginia till this summer is ended, the North's power of mischief will be gone; if we lose, the South's capacity for resisting will be broken. The Confederacy has ample power to keep its place in Virginia, if employed with energy and consistency; and this is the last year of the war whichever wins."

"And this is the last year of the war which ever wins," says the Examiner. With this view of the situation, it is easy to believe that the telegraph told us the truth on Monday when it was stated that there was the wildest excitement and consternation in Richmond over the news of Lee's retreat. Davis boasted that he could hold Virginia for twenty years, and the present week of "peace" will determine whether he is able to do so or not.

We perfectly agree with the Examiner that if they are beaten in Virginia this summer, the war must end; but if by any unforeseen casualty or circumstance, Grant fails to reach Richmond, there is not a man in all the loyal North who deserves to be called a free man but that would scorn the proposition of dissolution and anarchy that is involved in the dismemberment of these States. The virus of secession has only commenced its deadly work when the allegiance of the slaveholding States is thrown off. That thing accomplished, and there can be no binding force whatever in the instrument which we call the constitution of the United States. There would then be no such government as the United States of America; and Minnesota or Maine would be as free to assert their independent sovereignty as any of the states that have dissolved the old Union by force of arms. If the south succeed in this insane attempt to destroy the government which our fathers have constructed for our benefit at so great a sacrifice of blood and treasure, our troubles of revolution will have just commenced. It will seed as affiant upon the treacherous sea of chaos, without chart or compass, the sport and prey of ambitious demagogues and military chieftains.

We are not fighting for the subjugation of the south, unless it becomes necessary for the preservation and permanency of that civil and religious liberty which has so long been the pride and glory of our republican form of government; but when it comes to be a matter a choice between the life of the Republic and the utter and ignominious death of every man in the south who raises his murderous hand against the stars and stripes, we shall promptly choose the latter. It is only the traitors in the South that need "subjugating," and the only medicine that is "good for what ails them" is such as is being prescribed for them by Doctor Ulysses S. Grant.

We trust his doses this week will not be dealt out on the homeopathic system of measurement, but to use the language of the Examiner, we hope his "blows may touch the vitals of the South, and paralyze its limbs with the weakness and tremor of dissolution!"

So mote it be is the prayer of us all.

Messrs. LONG AND HARRIS RECOMMENDED.—The Grand Jury of Harrison county, Missouri, now in session, after disposing of the various cases of misdemeanors and felony against the laws of Missouri, having read with the utmost contempt the speeches delivered by Alexander Long and Harris in Maryland, in the House of Representatives at Washington City, and considering the language uttered by them in said speeches as treasonable, it was by motion of J. H. Burrows taken under consideration, and after due deliberation, it was resolved to recommend them to their separate districts to which they belong, as liable to be indicted before the District Court as guilty of high treason against the laws of the United States of America, to which we severally subscribe our names.

S. S. Vandeventer, Foreman; Charles Miller, James H. Linch, William Falls, John King, J. C. Frisley, James A. Sorier, William M. Selby, A. A. Peacock, H. O. Bryant, John N. Flint, J. B. Carson, E. S. Neff, William Officer, A. Butler, E. C. Wright, J. H. Burrows, L. T. Morris.

RATHER RADICAL.—The Standing Committee on Emancipation in the Louisiana Constitutional Convention, now in session in New Orleans, has made its report, or rather two reports. The majority, numbering eight recommend immediate unconditional emancipation, the minority, numbering one, goes in for gradual emancipation and compensation to slave owners. This looks as if there were "Jacobins" in Louisiana as well as in Missouri. "What are we coming to?" We have no doubt every Conservative chap in the country will be saying to himself: "The people are getting to have no more respect for slavery than they have for treason in any other form."—St. Louis Democrat.

THE RICHMOND Examiner, in an article making the most of the incidents of rebel success this spring, says:

"Not an instance in the war can be mentioned of the Yankees having driven our men from entrenched positions."

This is a singularly audacious assertion.—Have the rebels forgotten Fort Donelson, Roanoke Island, Newbern, Arkansas Post, Lookout Mountain and Mission Ridge?

THE PRETTY girls of Hartford sold over $6,000 worth of pincheons, etc., at the Sanitary Fair in that city.

A Plea for Union Among Union Men.

[From the N. Y. Times.]

We publish this morning a speech by Senator Doolittle, of Wisconsin, on the paramount importance of avoiding in the discussions of the day, everything essential to the prosecution of the war, and which can divide the Union men or weaken the active loyalty of the people of the loyal States. It was made upon a proposition brought forward by Senator Wilkinson, of Minnesota, to give negroes the right of suffrage in the Territory of Montana. As there has never been one negro in that territory, and he either died or left it some time since the question had no great political importance; but it was pressed by Senator Wilkinson and some of his colleagues with as much zeal as if the fate of the Union and their own reelection depended exclusively on the result. Senator Doolittle declined to discuss the question whether negroes should be allowed to vote in Montana—because it was not of the slightest practical consequence, just now, whether they are or not, and because, furthermore, the discussion is very likely to do harm to the cause of the Union by dividing those who are struggling for its preservation. And the object of his speech is to press upon loyal men everywhere the absolute necessity of unity, of harmony, and of avoiding controversies and discussions which threaten to disturb them.

The advice is most excellent. It is in harmony with the universal sentiment of the country. The people do not sympathize with the attempts of demagogues and doctrinaires in Congress and out of Congress, to force upon the country new and needless issues, social, political or personal. They want the rebellion quelled, and the Union kept—They want the ranks of the army strengthened, and its columns kept moving. They want all the elements of strength which the country can command, used freely, vigorously and persistently, to crush the rebel armies.—Whatever of muscle or of money may be required they demand shall be had. Whether men be black or white, free or slave, rich or poor, makes no difference, if they can help put down the rebellion, and save the nation, they are expected to do it.

This is the one thing upon which the people of this country have set their hearts, and they intend to see it accomplished. The overwhelming necessity of the nation—that before which all other necessities and all considerations must for the moment yield—is a military necessity—the necessity for armies, for vigorous fighting, for decisive victories. Whatever will bring us these, the people favor. Whatever retards and makes them doubtful, they discard and denounce. They are for enlisting negroes because negroes can fight. They are for freeing slaves because giving them freedom weakens the rebels. But they are not for consuming public time and devoting public attention by untiring contests as to their social status, nor as to the civil rights it will be just and wise to give them by and by. All these questions will come up in due time, provided we save the nation,—and can then be discussed and adjusted upon their merits. But to force them promiscuously upon public attention,—to raise issues and promote dissensions and create parties upon them, in the very midst of the conflict which is to decide the fate of the nation itself, is to put at hazard the very existence of the Government and give the rebellion its only chance of triumph.

A GAY GRAND JURY.—The Grand Jury of the Municipal Court which has just adjourned, ought to have a leather medal. They had the case before them, of a girl who confessed to stealing a large quantity of apparel in a private house, and yet they refused to indict her.

They also had the case before them, of the two men arrested for passing counterfeit money, it being one of the strongest of cases; and yet they refused to indict them.

Judge Mallory was so indignant at their proceedings, that he ordered the girl to be tried on the charge of petit larceny, and she was convicted and sent to jail for sixty days. He also ordered the counterfeiters to be held over till the next Grand Jury, in the hope that it will be an improvement on this one.

Such a Grand Jury ought to be indicted itself. There might have been two or three worthy men upon it, but the majority of it evidently had no higher sense of the distinction between right and wrong, than the criminals whose cases came up before them. We say this understandingly, and emphatically. They perjured themselves, and proved themselves unworthy ever again to appear in a Court of Justice, except as arraigned before it. If thieves and criminals are thus to be set loose by what, what are they left to the community? What encouragement is there for any officer to do his duty? Let the last Grand Jury go forth branded.—Daily Wisconsin.

Governor ANDREW JOHNSON, of EMANCIPATION.—A Knoxville letter to the Cincinnati Commercial says:

"Governor Johnson addressed a large and attentive assemblage to-day, at the corner of Gay and Main streets, in which he took strong ground in favor of a convention to amend the constitution of the state; emancipating the slaves, and declaring that slavery shall be forever prohibited in Tennessee, except for the punishment of crime. The resolutions also approved the war policy of President Lincoln, and of the employment of black soldiers in the army of the United States for putting down the rebellion. Governor Johnson spoke for nearly two hours in his usual forcible style, arguing all the constitutional and other questions embraced in the resolutions, and viewing the subject from a political point of view, as well as in its economical and social aspects. It is needless to say he carried with him the judgment and sympathies of his audience, and was frequently interrupted by applause. At the conclusion of his speech, Parson Brownlow, who presided, and who favored the resolutions, called for the vote upon them, and they were adopted without a dissenting voice."

HAVE CATTLE ANY RIGHT IN THE HIGHWAY.—A correspondent writes to the American Agriculturist: "When the subject of excluding stock from pasturing in the streets came up for discussion in our Farmers' Club, it was claimed by certain trespassers that the rural legislatures of the town or county, and that therefore all the inhabitants have a right to feed their cattle in them. But it was shrewdly replied to this, that if so, then the town or county must make half of the fences on the lines, and the people must be perpetually taxed for the purpose. At this, the trespassers and their friends shrugged their shoulders. Moreover, the chairman, being well versed in the law, rose up and said: 'The common law of England, (which is also our law,) settles this matter very justly and plainly when it says: 'The king himself has no right to the highway, except for purposes of travel and repairs; also, that the trees and stones, except such as are needed for repairs, with all other minerals, and the grass, belong to him through whose land the highway passes.' Here, we have the answer for that evening. But still the same of street cattle is not yet abated with us."

THE DRAFT has been ordered to commence in New York, New Hampshire, Vermont and several other states.

An Over-Dressed People.

[From a New York Tribune article.]

We are a very scandalously over-dressed people—our women especially—but this fault is more glaring in any other class than in that which is esteemed most fashionable. Walk down Broadway any sunny afternoon, and you will meet perhaps a thousand women who look like locomotive advertisements of Storratt's oil-slip and foot-loose, or some other fashionable establishment for the vending of sumptuous dry-goods; but not a hundred of these will belong to any among our wealthy old families.—We do not mean to say that the ladies of these families have not also costly apparel and jewelry; but they never think of adorning themselves with the side-walks and increasing the pedestrian attractions of Broadway. But let a banker's clerk make a hit in some gold-gambing operation, and his wife or other lady will sweep along Broadway next week under silks and laces sufficient to furnish a yacht with sails and streamers; while the suddenly enriched cutler's or commissionary's or contractor's wife and daughters require two carriages apiece to convey them and their "traps" to the opera, with a servant to pick up the diamonds that have rather been displayed on their hats than made really conducive to their personal attractions. In fact, we have heard that the most costly array of precious stones, bought in Philadelphia in 1863 were ordered and paid for by a very common laborer of other days; who, had suddenly and amply enriched himself by following up the Army of the Potomac, gathering up the animal food thrown away by the soldiers, and selling it for soap-grease. Wishing to advertise his accession to the wealthy class, he knew no better way than to cover his wife with laces and diamonds and send her forth a walking proclamation of his good fortune.

INSURE WITH THE MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF WISCONSIN.—It is the Best Company for Western Men.—The reasons why this is the best Company are: That it is a Western Company; made up of and managed by Western men, doing all or nearly all its business in the Northwest, and concentrating in this one Company a superior class of risks, mostly of young men, or men in the prime of life, and they selected with its great care in regard to eligibility to Life Insurance, as are the risks of any other company.

It is true that the Company has neither the age nor the accumulations of some eastern companies, but is gaining the latter very fast; is vigorous for one of its age; is doing a large business, having issued 637 policies in the months of December and January just passed, and is doing its business as economically as the same can be done anywhere. It has for its guide, the experience of all other companies, and among its managers some of the best business men in the Northwest.

This is the first successful effort ever made to build up a similar institution in the West, and it should be the pride, as it certainly is the interest, of every business man in this section of the State, to identify himself with its growth.

This Company issues non-forfeiting policies, upon which premiums are paid in five or ten annual payments. These non-forfeiting policies are very desirable, as they guarantee to the policy holder the benefit of all the money that he pays into the Company, and also enable him to pay his premiums for the whole of life, while he is young, or at an early period, thus relieving him from the burden of payment in old age. Insurance upon this plan, (as well as on all other policies that this Company issues) become due and payable at death, should death occur before the ten years expire.

It also issues the endowment policy which becomes due and payable to the party assured at a stated age specified. These latter policies are becoming quite popular, and are particularly desirable for young men.

COLGATE'S HONEY SOAP.

This celebrated Toilet Soap, in such universal demand, is made from the "choicest" materials, is mild and emollient to the texture, fragrant, scented, and extremely beneficial in its action upon the skin. For sale by all Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers. 424p14w14w

"A SLIGHT COLD," COUGHS.

Now appears of the importance of choosing a Cough "Cure" in its first stages; that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected, soon attacks the lungs. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" give sure and almost immediate relief. Military Officers and Soldiers should have them; they can be carried in the pocket and taken as occasion requires. 424p14w14w

HAGAN'S MAGNOLIA BALM.

Made from the most fragrant and extraordinary article ever discovered. It changes the sun-burnt face and hands to a pearly skin texture of ravishing beauty, imparting the marble purity of youth and the delicate appearance so inviting in the city belle of fashion. It removes tan, freckles, pimples, and roughness from the skin, leaving the complexion fresh, transparent and smooth. It contains no material injurious to the skin. Patronized by Actresses and Opera Singers. It is what every lady should have. Sold everywhere. 424p14w14w

HAIR DYE! HAIR DYE!

BAKER'S CELEBRATED HAIR DYE is the best in the world. The only Harmless, True and Reliable Dye known. This splendid Hair Dye is perfect—changes Red, Rusty, or Grey Hair, instantly to a Glossy Black or Natural Brown, without injuring the hair or staining the skin, leaving the hair soft and beautiful, imparting to the scalp, frequently restoring its natural color, and restoring the hair to its original texture. The genuine is signed WILLIAM A. BAKER, all others are imitations, and should be avoided. Sold by all Druggists, &c. Factory—31 BARCLAY ST., N. Y. BAKER'S NEW TONIC CREAM FOR DRESSING THE HAIR. 424p14w14w

HEINSTRUP'S INIMITABLE HAIR RESTORATIVE.

It is not a DYE, but restores gray hair to its original color, by supplying the capillary tubes with natural colorings imparted by nature. All instantaneous dyes are composed of lunar caustic, destroying the vitality and beauty of the hair, and of itself renders the hair brittle, and causes it to fall out. Heinstrup's Inimitable Coloring not only restores hair to its natural color by an easy process, but gives the hair a luxuriant beauty, promotes its growth, prevents its falling out, restores its natural color, and imparts health and pleasantness to the head. It has stood the test of time being the original hair coloring, and is constantly increasing in favor. Used by both gentlemen and ladies. It is sold by all respectable dealers, or can be procured by them of the commercial agents, D. S. BARNES & CO., 262 Broadway, New York. Two sizes, 50 cents and $1. 424p14w14w

WYNKOOP'S ICELAND PECTORAL.

Diseases of the Throat, Chest, and Pulmonary Organs are ever prevalent, and dangerous. The properties of a medicine to alleviate, cure, and prevent these complaints, must be expectant, and none and invigorating, loosening the mucus of the throat, and imparting tone to the entire system. No discovery in medical science ever surpassed this dose of disease like Dr. Wynkoop's Iceland Pectoral. It is made with the most strengthening and invigorating ingredients, and is constantly increasing in favor. Used by both gentlemen and ladies. It is sold by all respectable dealers, or can be procured by them of the commercial agents, D. S. BARNES & CO., 262 Broadway, New York. Two sizes, 50 cents and $1. 424p14w14w

Took it Back Again.—During the battle of Shiloh, an officer hurriedly rode up to an aid, and inquired for Grant. "That's him with the field glass," said the aid, pointing to a man in the distance. The officer then rode up to the General, and, touching his cap, thus addressed him: "Shenior, I want to make your report: Schwartz's Battery is lost." "Ha!" said the General, "how was that?" "Well, you see, Shenior, de—d Shesheshists comes up in de front of us, de—d Shesheshists flanked us, and de—d Shesheshists rode up to de rear of us and Schwartz's Battery was took." "Well, sir," said the General, "you of course spoke the gun." "Well, sir," said the General, "what did you do?" "Do! Y, we took dem back again by—P."

ROCK CO. WISCONSIN. LANDS FOR SALE BY AUCTION. Will be sold by auction on Thursday the 23d of June Next, in the city of Janesville, Rock county, Wisconsin, the first eight hundred and forty (840) acres of the most fertile lands in the State. They are situated about ten miles from Janesville, and adjoining the village of Footville, with the Illinois and Madison Railroad running through them, and the Milwaukee & Southern Wisconsin Railroad on their border, and are composed of about an equal quantity of heavy "grove" timber and prairie. They were selected for their present owner for investment, nearly thirty years ago, at the best lands, in all respects, in Rock county, and this country, it is well known, is the garden of Wisconsin. They will be sold in farm parcels, and the purchase money, less twenty or twenty-five per cent, which must be paid in cash, may remain on mortgage at seven per cent interest, for seven or ten years, excepting timber lots which will be sold for cash. There will be sold at the same time and place, the first eight hundred and forty (840) acres of the most fertile lands in the State, the whole for sale, twenty two (22) acres of prime land in Marathon county, the town of Wausau, selected about eight years ago. For further particulars apply personally, or by letter to Mr. William S. Thomas agent Horace H. Willard and others, who will be in Janesville ten days before the sale takes place, to wit: H. P. Faxon, Esq., Commissioner of the State, or to Mr. John Howe, on the property, at Footville, or to Mr. John Howe, on the property, at Footville. 1852p14awt
